About Banasthali Vidyapith

Banasthali Vidyapith is the world's largest fully residential women's university having more than 15,000 students and is situated amidst rural settings in the state of Rajasthan just south of Jaipur at its sprawling campus spread over 850 acres. Being established in 1935, the University has its unique ideology of providing all aspects of education comprising of Physical, Practical, Aesthetic, Moral, and Intellectual, hence named "Panchmukhi Shiksha". Khadi wearing is the hallmark of Banasthali, to say it believes in "simple living and flying high".

It has a wide spectrum of courses from nursery to doctoral in direction to give valued, cultured, and intelligent citizens to the society. The journey of Banasthali Vidyapith over the last eight decades has been full of innovatively creating value for the community, especially women. The institution is known worldwide for its dedication to the noble cause of women's education. It has been re-accredited with the highest possible 'A + +' grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), MHRD, Government of India and is the only Women's University to feature among the top 100 Universities in the NIRF university rankings of India. Banasthali has shown its visibility on international platforms through its various exchange programs and academic partnerships with reputed institutions across the world. Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) recognized Banasthali as one of the few global women's universities working for value inculcation and character building of the students. After a historic debut in 2020, Banasthali Vidyapith consolidated its position and features for the 4th consecutive year in THE (Times Higher Education) world university rankings 2023 and remained one of the best 3-4% universities and the second- best Women's universities in the world. Banasthali University is a partner under the Erasmus Mundus Action-2 Inter-disciplinary Bridges between Indo-European Studies (IBIES) Programme, which has 6 European Universities and 12 Indian Universities as its members for student exchange programs. Banasthali Vidyapith is also part of three ERASMUS+ projects under action Capacity Building in Higher Education (CBHE) for 'Cooperation for innovation and the exchange of good practices. Out of these three project two projects are for Teacher Education, the first project AURORA - Alliance of Universities to Reinforce teacher training curricula to Outcast Radicalism and promote equality in Asian societies is a joint project, coordinated by Banasthali Vidyapith with 4 European universities, 3 Nepali universities, 5 Indian universities/institutes for the duration of January 2020 -January 2024. The second project is the " 21st Century Teaching Skill for Teacher training" is also a joint project with Banasthali Vidyapith.

About ERASMUS+

Erasmus+ is the EU's program to support education, training, youth and sport in Europe. Launched in 1987, the "Erasmus" program was originally established to promote closer cooperation between universities and higher education institutions across Europe. Over time, the program has expanded and is now referred to as Erasmus+, combining the EU's different schemes for translational cooperation and mobility in education, training, youth and sport in Europe and beyond.

The AURORA PROJECT

The AURORA project is a three-year programme curated to focus on the issues of Inclusion, diversity, and integration of socio economically disadvantaged participants. It is funded by the Erasmus + Programme of the European Union. It strives to create a programme for Curricula Reform in India and Nepal that will promote inclusive education by empowering teachers through training and Undergraduate and Post-Graduate students by introducing new courses in educational programmes, organizing workshops for faculty and leadership training for students. It is also aimed at promoting gender equality, democratic values, multiculturalism and global citizenship. Project AURORA - 'Alliance of Universities to reinforce teacher training curricula to outcast radicalism and promote equality in Asian societies' is a joint project, coordinated by Banasthali Vidyapith University of India in partnership with four Universities in Europe, three Universities in Nepal and five Universities / Institutes in India.

About the Conference

Radicalisation poses a significant global challenge. It is a complex problem which intertwine socio-political, economic and religious factor. Combating Radicalisation through education involves multifaceted approaches. Implanting inclusive curricula that promote critical thinking and cultural understanding helps dismantle stereotypes and prejudices. Fostering open dialogue in classroom encourages students to express diverse perspectives, fostering empathy and tolerance. Training educators to recognize signs of Radicalisation ensure early intervention. Additionally, incorporating digital literacy programs equips students to navigate online spaces responsibly, countering online Radicalisation. Ultimately, education becomes a powerful tool in shaping informed, resilient individuals who are less susceptible to extremist ideologies. UNESCO, since its inception has been stressing on promoting transformative education with the objective of making the world a better place to live.

In this light, Banasthali Vidyapith is organizing an one day international conference on 'Education for "Combating Radicalisation" in order to acknowledge the role of the above mentioned domains and to spread awareness on it.
